

RUNWAY & EVENT PRODUCTION

Working very closely with clients from the beginning, Trudie ensures she understands her client's exact needs, timeline, and any other essential details. A full scope service from idea inception to execution. Boutique to extensive scale services available

Trudie is known and respected for her creative vision and direction on multiple Gold Coast charity events supported by the Marriott Surfers Paradise and The Avenue. She has a reputation for taking the simplest of creative briefs and turning them into successful events, projects, and outcomes. As an out of the box thinker, she is continuously striving for fresh and expressive approaches that connect and engage.

A full and multi-faceted service where Trudie can draw an entire team together to execute on your fashion event and needs. Likewise, Trudie can consult and assist your existing team.
